Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 6 December 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant's remarks filed 6 December 2004 appear to not specifically address the rejection of record. It is not readily understood by the Examiner as to what is being argued. While page 2 of the remarks refers to the claims being allowed in view of a Terminal Disclaimer, there is no record a Terminal Disclaimer has been filed by Applicant.

For at least the above, it is hereby noted Applicant's remarks are not fully responsive and that the rejection noted in the last Office action will still stand even as to the amended claims.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970);and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

Art Unit: 3661

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1 – 44 are still rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 - 27 of U.S. Patent No. 6,584,387 B1. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 1 and 2, 24, 31, and 38 of this instant application are addressed with regard to claims 1, 23, 1 and 27, and 23 and 27, respectively, of the Patent; while the improvement in claim 1 omits the seat comprising a seat back and a seat cushion, that is addressed in claim 2 and would have been obvious regardless of the omission to the skilled artisan at the time of the invention that vehicle seat commonly include a seat back and a seat cushion and that the improvement provides the same end result of protecting an occupant of the vehicle; with regard to claims 24 and 31 in the Application, it is clear from claims 1, 23 and 27 data is transmitted from the microprocessor; obviously, the microprocessor (receives) is responsive to the transmitted signal (data) as claimed; claim 38 in the Application is addressed considering claims 23 and 25 of the Patent and it would be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to recognize that in order for the occupant of the vehicle to be protected, the protection means must be controlled by a decision making means (as established in the patent preamble).

Claims 3 – 23, 25 – 30, 32 – 37, and 39 – 44 in the Application are addressed with respect to dependent claims 3 – 22 and 24 – 26 in the Patent and the above obviousness statement still applies.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
